

Randall Area Fine Arts Council
Randall, Iowa

Dear Friends,

The Randall Area Fine Arts Council is an incorporated organization dedicated to the promotion of Ragtime in Randall, featuring area young artists. The Council supports the performing arts series with six events throughout the year.

This year, 2010, is another exciting Ragtime in Randall Festival with both Nan Bostick and Brian Keenan returning as guest artists. Our original and resident artists will also be a part of this outstanding festival.

Please consider a tax deductible donation for the preservation and continued growth of the Randall Area Fine Arts Council. The form on the brochure is for your contribution.

Thank you for your continued support to keep "The Best of All Festivals!" For more information, visit our website, www.ragtimeinrandall.org.
